IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving memory of my dear husband, James Almer Martin, who departed this life two years ago today, July 24, 1947.
An aching heart, a falling tear,
Marks the passing of another year.
When shadows are falling,
And I am alone,
In my heart there is a longing,
If you could only come home.

I pray and know that you are in that Heavenly Home on high,
And I am hoping to meet you there
In that sweet bye and bye.
-Devoted Wife, Mrs. Bertha Martin.

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of our darling son and brother, James Thurman Gibson, who died five years ago today, July 17th, 1944.
July only brings sad memories,
Of our loved one gone to rest.
You will never be forgotten,
By the ones who loved you best.
The stars are shining bright,
On a sad and lonely grave,
Of our darling son and brother,
Whom we love but could not save.
Five sad and lonely years have passed,
Since one great sorrow fell;
The shock we received that day,
We all remember well.
Often in our hearts comes a cry,
Why, oh why, did our darling die?
Then comes an answer soft and sweet,
Your darling is not dead,
He is only asleep.
